PERSONAL.—A letter from the White Sulphur Springs to the Baltimore American, says: "Miss Daingerfield, of American, says: "Miss Daingerfield, of Alexandria, who is here with Mrs, John Hooe—well known in Baltimore as Miss May Herbert-has the honor of being elected to represent Virginia beauty at the World's fair. She presents the unusual combination of brunette coloring and dark gray eyes. Friday Mrs. Judge Semmes, of New Orleans, gave a pro-gressive eachre party in honor of her niece, Miss America Payne, of Warmece, Miss America Payne, of War-renton."

Mr. W. B. Daingerfield and family and Miss Evie Prescott, of this city, are at the West Lynchburg hotel.

Messrs. T. H. Ficklin, Geo. Young, J. S. Beach, M. P. Vincent and R. T. Grimes left here yesterday evening for a trip by water to Baltimore.

Mr. Henry W. Clark and Miss Mary

Mr. Henry W. Clark and Miss Mary Clifford, daughter of the late Wm. Clifrd, were married in this city yesterday. Mr. B. H. Jenkins, who seriously mashed his hand a few days ago, is suffering considerably from the effects of the injury.

Dr. Smith and Mr. F. Paff left this morning for a twoHweeks' sojourn at Sweet Chalybeate Springs. Mrs. Gilbert, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Newby are visiting their mother, Mrs. English, on Fairfax street.

Mr. Alexander Murray, of Memphis, is visiting relatives in this city. Mr. Louis Shuman, of Richmond, Va., is visiting his uncle, L. Shuman, on about 300 in favor of Manassas. This was the second vote, the first taken several years since being against the removal by a majority of sixty. The merchants, lawers, and others of this city, who have business relations with the people of Prince William, are much pleased at the change, as to meet them on court days hereafter they will not be compelled to take a long stage ride from Manassas to Brentsville. Most of churches, though by no means crowded, had larger congregations than on the two previous Sundays. Rev. Dr. Walker preached in Christ church, Rev. Mr. Woodson in St. Paul's, and Rev. Mr. Millen in the M. E. Church South. Early in the night the display of fire-works at River View brought numbers to the hills overlooking the river, and later many astronomically inclined looked at and speculated upon the planet Mars which glistened and shed its ruddy light under the moon.

Leg Crushed.—George Washington, colored, while at work this morning at Messrs, F. A. Reed & Co.'s warehous receiving ice being discharged from the schooner Ida C. Southard, had one of schooner Ida C. Southard, had one of his legs broken by being caught between two blocks of ice. Washington was standing at the end of the chute and had just stopped a block of ice. In reaching to get a hook he lost his balance and before he could recover himself another heavy block came sliding down the chute. Washington's leg was caught between the two blocks and caught between the two blocks and broken. He was taken into the ice house where he was attended by Doctor Brown and was subsequently taken to the Infirmary.

FUNERAL.—The remains of Mr. Jas. A. Stewart, who was killed in Delaware on Friday night last by being knocked from an engine on which he was fireman, were brought to his home in this city on Saturday night. This morning the funeral took place from St. Mary's Church and was largely attended. The deceased was a member of the Fanchon Club, which sent a beautiful floral tri-

DEATH OF CAPTAIN SPOTSWOOD .-Captain Charles Fenton Mercer Spotswood, formerly of the United States and Confederate navies, died on Saturday at his home in Norfolk. He had day at his home in Noriok. He had woodawh, Fairax county, by the correached his eightieth year, but he was quite active up to the torrid spell of last week. Captain Spotswood was born at Newport, in Spotsylvania county in 1813, and was the son of George on Princess street, between Royal and ty in 1813, and was the son of George W. and Lucy Spotswood. He entered the United States navy at the age of fourteen years, served through the Mexican war and served on the coast of Africa, and was on the Yorktown when wrecked on that coast. While serving in the Mediterranean Sca he married a in the Mediterranean Sea he married a Spanish lady—Miss Aquimbau—at Port Mahon Island, off Minorca. When the Nat Turner insurrection broke out in Southampton he was with the government forces that suppressed it. He was stationed at Gosport Navy Yard at the breaking out of the civil war, and was also on duty there after he entered the Confederate navy, having been the Confederate navy, having been ordered to take command of the sta-tion by the Governor of Virginia when 'emmodore McCawley abandoned and burned the yard. He was on duty dur-ing the war for a considerable time in connection with the confederate ord-nance work at Charlotte, N. C.

A REMARKABLE CASE.—The granting of a divorce to Ezra Park Foot, of St. Paul, Minn., from his wife, formerly Florence Blood, of Philadelphia, has revealed a story similar in some respects to that of Robert Ray Hamilton and Eva Mann. Ezra Park Foot is a son of Silas Foot, a wealthy leather merchant, of St. Paul. He went to Philadelphia to study dentistry, and became acquainted with Florence Blood, a young woman of twenty. Subsequently he went to Lancaster. Nearly one one year afterward Florence appeared with a boy three or four months old, and compelled Foot to go with her to Canden, N. J., where they were married on December 12, 1830. Miss Blood had secured the baby from Mrs. Theresa Campbell, of New York, through the aid of Dr. Elise Landau, of that city. Sho made the mistake of giving her future name. Mrs. Erza Foot of St. Paul. It was arranged that Mrs. Campbell was to be allowed but this Philadelphia, has revealed a story similar in made the mistake of giving her inture hand.

Mrs. Erzi Foot of St. Paul. It was arranged that Mrs. Campbell was to be allowed to see her child occasionally, but this was not done, so Mrs. Campbell applied to the New York Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children to aid her in finding the infant. In the meantine young Foot had taken his wife and their supposed child to St. Paul, where they were given a good home, the little fellow becoming a great favorite of the elder Foot. In investigating the case the lawyer for the society wrote to the elder Foot, who came on to sog ghout the matter, and soon learned that his son had been deceived. But Mrs. Foot apparently suspecting that something was wrong disappeared with the child. The S. P. C. C. of Philadalphia found her living with her parents and recovered Mrs. Campbell's child.
These facts being shown, young Foot obtained a divorce, and subsequently Mrs. Campbell was induced to permit the bey Willie to be adopted by the elder Mr. Foot.

A NEW CURE FOR HAY FEVER,-A Free hold, N. J., man named Allen, who is an in-KILLED.—Willis Pickins, a colored section-hand on the Richmond and Danville road, was killed near Union Mills, south of Clifton Station, on Saturday evening, by jumping from a train. He had a ticket for Nokesville, where he lived, and on the same train was a fellow-workman from whom it is said Pickins had stolen a watch and a sum of money. The man accused Pickins of the theft when the latter ran from the car. The conductor attempted to seize him, but Pickins eluded the conductor's grasp, threw his satchel from the train and then jumped. As he alighted on the ground he was struck on the head by the steps of one of the cars of the train, which was running at a rapid rate, and instantly killed. The train was stopped and Pickins' body was taken to Manassas where it was prepared for burial.

Yesterday was not on time, and the temperature was a decided improvement on that of the two preceding Sandays. A northerly breeze prevailed during the day, which with a clear sky rendered the weather pleasant. The churches, though by no means crowded, had larger congregations than on the two previous Sundays. WE HAVE now on hand a large lot of Ladies' Jerseys, nice for spring and summer wear, which we will sell for 30c. AMOS B. SLAYMAKER.

Woodward & Lothrop. THE HOT WEATHER

Makes a continued demand for summer fabrics, and we are endeavoring to keep up with the demand by additions to summer

Another choice lot of Irish Lawns, the most popular fabric of the season.

New and desirable 12c Ginghams.

A choice lot of cheap Challis.

All numbers in India Linens, Persian

Lawns, &c. New Swiss Embroideries, desirable Valencia Laces, White Point d'Island and Point de Gene Laces. To close out we offer the entire line of 75c, $1.00, 1.25 and 1.50 Outing Shirts at the uniform price of 75c each.

A large lot of Sun Umbrellas, mostly silk, at about 60c on the dollar of value.

New Storm Serges, new bleached Surahs, Trunks, Bags, Telescopes and Valises for the summer tourists.

Our bargain sale of Carpets still on. When we advertise a bargain it is likely to be one of real merit, and despite the hot weather we have made large inroads in the carpets advertised. We will continue the sale at sacrifice prices all during the month of August. If you can find a carpet that strikes your eye and fits your room you will save at least onethird of the cost of it.

The bargain sale of carpets includes only tapestry and body brussels.
